

HOW LOVE

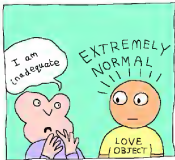

Dear Dorris,
how to overcome shyness so you can get hot dudes?

-Saudi mohamud

Shyness is often caused by a weak self-image

and a tendency to compare yourself to others.

In matters of love, this can be particularly troublesome because we picture our beloved as a MEGA HOTTIE

and in comparison
we feel TOTALLY LAME.

You may want to turn yourself into someone you imagine hobbies will like...

perhaps someone more outgoing.

But some of the quietest people I know are also the most confident.

So instead of chasing all these hotties

the hottie you should try to find is the strong, quiet hottie that was inside you

all along.
